

June 2 South County Social Justice Coalition Newsletter

Dear Friends,

We have a number of events this coming week:

- Witness Stones Installation Ceremony, Monday, June 5, 2023, 1:30-2:30 PM Kingston Congregational Church, 2610 Kingstown Road, Kingston, RI.
- The South Kingstown Tax referendum – June 6. For those who live in South Kingstown, be sure to vote on June 6 regarding the referendum that would cut 1.5 million dollars from the school budget. Voting is from 8 am to 8 pm at the Recreation Center.
- The Beauty and Geology of Yellowstone and Teton National Parks - a presentation by Don Hermes, former URI Geology Professor, Friday, June 9, 2023, 6:30 PM. Peace Dale Congregational Church, 261 Columbia Street, South Kingstown, RI.
- Prism Praise Concert to support playground renovation for Fournier Estates and Champagne Heights – June 11 at Peace Dale Congregational Church, 4 pm. A project is currently underway to renovate playground equipment at Fournier Estates and Champagne Heights. Current equipment is broken and unsafe. Proceeds from the concert at Peace Dale Congregational Church at 4 pm by the Prism Praise choir will support the construction of new playgrounds at these locations. Come and hear a great choir sing and support a worthy cause.
- Teach Truth Day of Action, Saturday, June 10, 2023, 11 AM - 2:00 PM, Rochambeau Library, 708 Hope Street, Providence, RI. This event is part of the national Teach Truth Day of Action. Read the press release HERE.

Thank you to all who are sending me social justice events to be shared. Keep them coming. Please share the contents of this newsletter with others in your organization.

Best regards,

Joanne Haynes
